

Col. 1: 27 "Christ in you, the hope of glory".

Indis. What we will not consider.

X, of the Godhead

X in history

X in theology.

but X in you. the hope of your glory

(inspiration & evidence of your immortality
with God in peace, joy, happiness.

Not a revelation of the structure of the universe

but "God & moral good,"
In each individual soul the revelation of God in fact.

The indwelling of the divine Spirit, a truth
not peculiar to this.

But in the gospels (John especially) it is made clear,
X coming to men, entering into them, eating with them, dwelling with them in household
relationships. "I am the vine, ye are the branches, as the branch cannot bear fruit by itself except it abide in the vine, so cannot ye except ye abide in me, because I live ye shall live also."

X in you — born in you.

A figure of speech — *

X did all things just as God wanted him to. The Spirit of X & the Spirit of God because one in all the activities of X & in all his conduct.

How much X is there in you?

Is it still but a babe - a case &
a burden to you? and not a Light, a Defender, a Liberator,
a Prince? a Savior?

X acted as God would had God been in his place. X in your means that you act as Christ would were Christ himself in your place.

It is not so easy as it looks.

- X was born a babe.
The X in you is just a babe yet - it needs to be cared for.

- Jesus "The child grew & waxed strong in spirit, filled with wisdom, and the grace of God was upon him."
The enlarging of ideals; the strengthening of purposes; the establishing of habits.

- X as Teacher & Helper - dealt with prejudices & weaknesses, sickness & death.

- Henceforth I call you not servants, but friends. - In the perfect freedom of love!
